UNIVERSITY OF MONTANA CHAMBER CHORALE TO SPEND SPRING QUARTER IN VIENNA

MISSOULA--

The University of Montana Chamber Chorale, under the direction of Donald Carey, will leave for Europe on March 27 to spend an academic quarter in Vienna.

The chorale is a select university music ensemble which has traveled extensively throughout the northwestern United States, Canada and Europe. Performances in the United States have included Haydn's "Creation," Brahms' "Requiem," Mendelssohn's "Elijah" and Bach's "St. John Passion," all under the direction of Robert Shaw.

A 1980 residency in Vienna included nearly 20 performances in that city with concerts also given in Venice and Florence, Italy. Members of the chorale studied for 10 weeks with Otto Edelmann, Robert Lindell and other musicians and faculty members from institutions such as the University of Vienna and Musik Akademie.

This year the chorale will go to Budapest; Nancy, where they have been invited to participate in the International Chorale Festival; Metz, where they will be part of the American week celebration; and Kaysersberg, where they will give a memorial concert to Albert Schweitzer.

The group will also be featured as guest artists with the Tonkünstler Orchestra, Maltiades Caridis conducting, and in a performance of the Mahler Eighth Symphony, with the Vienna Symphony Orchestra, Michael Gielen conducting.
